VOL. XXXII.

BUTLER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, APRIL 21, 1910.

NUMBER 26

VIRGINIA.

Floyd Park is putting a new roof on Miss Rachel Park's house.

Bert Warner was around with his fish wagon last week.

W. J. Bard's house burned down Saturday. They got everything out except what was in the dining room and cellar.

O. M. Drysdale and wife, of Amoret, took dinner with Mrs. G. W. Park Sabbath.

Miss Icy Jenkins came down from Kansas City Saturday to visit her mother, Mrs. B. F. Jenkins.

The Mulberry Hay Seed Band entertained a large audience in the M. W. A. Hall at Amoret last Saturday night, and received a large number of compliments from those present. The boys will furnish the music for Miss Maddy's entertainment at Plain View Friday night, April 22nd. Everybody come. The boys wish to say they are ready for service to the public at any all times.

Bailey Beckett and son, Lee, re-railed the roof on Young Aaron's barn last week. Mr. Beckett is doing some remodeling work on Miss Rachel Park's house this week.

Dick Craig and family, of Oklahoma, who stopped on his way to Montana to visit Mrs. Craig's brother, Geo. Ruble, left Thursday of last week for Montana to make their future home. Mrs. Lucy Berry and daughter went with them.

W. W. Rubel has put up a new wire fence along the road on his farm across the road from the store.

R. T. Judy is taking osteopathic treatment in Butler.

When a fellow drives up to his girl's home, and the girl's father comes running out to meet him, take his horse and put it up, it is a sign that the old gentleman is well pleased, but it is not a reliable sign of a wedding for sometimes, when a fellow falls in love with the young man, the girl becomes jealous and changes her mind, and the big day never comes around.

Winter weather hit Parktown Saturday, and snowflakes fell at a lively rate for awhile. Some of the farmers talked of building fires around their orchards and corn fields. Farm work has been at a standstill for two weeks on account of rain making the ground too wet.

Mrs. J. H. Park returned from New Home Monday, where she had been taking care of her mother, Mrs. Peter Crooks, for nearly two weeks. She reports her not much improved.

Miss Jesse Stream, of Amoret, was in our neighborhood last Wednesday arranging her music class.

Miss Mayme McKibben and Prof. Geo. Pahlman held the county examination for graduation from the eighth grade at the Virginia school house the 9th and 16th. Those taking the examination were: Beatrice Silvers, Holly Pahlman, Maud Martin, Marie Jensen, Martha Park, May Martin and Edna Fleming.

Misses Maggie Jones and Nell Caldwell, of Amoret, spent Saturday night and Sabbath with Miss Josie Jones at Virginia.

A number of the members of the Christian Church met at the church building Monday afternoon, and remodeled their hitch racks, cleaned the church, and also cleared up the yard.

Two large autos went through Virginia and Parktown Monday evening. They made the appearance of a special train in two sections.

Everett Drysdale had the misfortune to get his black saddle mare cut on the wire Thursday. She was running and playing, and kicked over the wire, cutting her leg badly.

J. E. Leonard and family and Jess Williams and wife went fishing Thursday last week. They caught several pounds of fish, but they were caught in the rain.

J. C. Cross and Harley Warderman took hogs to Butler Monday.

Roy Burk, who is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Burk, expects to leave for Montana the last of this week.

Matt Hinson has treated his house and barn to a new coat of paint. J. S. Ison is also painting his house.

Mr. Corlett is reported no better at this writing.

Grace Osborne spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Osborne.

YOUNG AARON.

West Deepwater.

We have had very bad weather the past week—rain, hail and snow, and if it continues cold there is grave fear of fruit being killed.

Nick Murphy was in Johnstown Saturday.

Mrs. John Bell, who has been very sick, is improving.

O. J. Radford, our local merchant of Spruce, sold $420.30 worth of eggs last week.

Miss Delores Reese visited friends in Butler last week.

Miss Florence Williams and Miss Lizzie Walters of near Peru, popular candidates in the piano contest, were in this vicinity last week soliciting subscriptions.

Miss Myra Snodgrass visited her brother Coleman, at Appleton City last week.

There are several cases of whooping cough in this vicinity.

Miss Goldie Spears, who is attending high school at Appleton, spent Sunday at home.

Mr. I. M. Kretzinger and John and Peat McCook have new buggies.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Charters, Jr., were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Herman of Culver Sunday.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Young died Wednesday, April 13, of whooping cough and was buried in White Cemetery.

J. H. Baker was called to Butler Thursday to serve on the board as an arbitrator on the case of changing the boundary line of Altona and Edwards districts.

Lee Turpin purchased a new buggy at Butler Saturday. Girls, look out! From all appearances we believe that Miss Mabel Charters will get to take the first ride.

Corn planting has been very much delayed on account of the bad weather.

Quite a number of this vicinity were called to Butler Tuesday, the 12th, as witnesses on the Kegerreis and Kegerreis case which was tried before Judge Denton. The Judge took the case under advisement until the May term of court.

The village of Spruce is a prosperous little town. They are laying new sidewalks. The occupants are O. J. Radford General Merchandise, Dick inson & Stephenson General Merchandise and Hardware, Charles Parker, barber and painter; Rev. Hargiss to preach to the good people on the second Sunday of each month and Dr. Fletcher to administer to the sick; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Winans, our excellent telephone operator; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rich, hotel proprietor and rural mail carrier of Route 2; Mr. Troop, carpenter and Captain Price, the blacksmith, the busiest one of all.

We congratulate our former editor, J. D. Allen, on his success as being elected Clerk but regret to lose him and hope his son Robert will successfully fill his father's place and with the aid of the correspondents' scribbles the Times will come to be the best and most interesting paper of the county.

W. H. Dunn, candidate for County Clerk on the Democratic ticket, was in this part of the county last week shaking hands with his friends.

I. M. Kretzinger lost a valuable mare with colic last week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Radford's youngest son run a rusty nail in his foot and it has abscessed three times and had to be lanced. His foot is reported to be getting all right.

Wm. White, of Appleton City, is spending several days on his farm. On the 18th Mrs. Edna Muchmore, his niece, who resides on his farm, invited a few of their friends and ate dinner with him, it being his birthday. About a year ago Mr. White was having his eyes treated at Butler by a specialist and was almost blind, but we are glad to learn that his sight has almost been restored.

H. H. Harshaw shipped about two car loads of fat cattle to Kansas City Monday.

Mrs. Marshall Brown was very sick again and the doctor was called. Also Mrs. Jas. Brown has been very poorly.

The new telephone line just built recently was connected with the switch board at Spruce.

Mr. O. J. Radford was called to Kansas City Monday as a witness for the defendant in a Metropolitan street railway company suit.

Mr. Reinheimer's party and toll phone lines have been down for some time. He has been notified time and again and the patrons are getting very tired of such poor service.

FARMER JOHN.

Mound Items.

Mr. Chas. Jenkins and family, Mr. Will Yeatts and wife and Grandma Yeatts spent Sunday with A. Barkley and wife.

Mr. Cox and family Sundayed with Mr. and Mrs. Holden.

Mr. Hook of Arkansas is visiting his relation, Mr. James Gragg, of near Passaic.

Mr. A. M. Moles transacted business in Adrian Monday.

Mr. A. M. Moles and family and Mr. Rose and family spent Sunday with Mr. Will Poindexter and wife.

Miss Minnie Poindexter is the proud owner of a new piano.

Looks like winter yet. Most people are afraid the fruit will be killed. Farmers are getting anxious to work.

Mr. Frank L. Dillon, Mound photographer, was out taking pictures Monday morning.

Mrs. Katie Yeatts, teacher of Dillon school, is suffering from a sprained ankle.

Mr. W. N. Poindexter is putting up a new yard fence. These are the kind of farmers that make Missouri farms what they are.

Miss May Green has returned from Kansas City, where she has been very sick the last few weeks.

Mr. A. Barkley transacted business in Adrian Monday.

The census takers have begun their work which is a hard task to do in thirty days.

Mr. Frank Dillon has a very sore arm, caused by boxing with Mr. Jake Fahnestock. He hit a right swing, hitting Mr. Fahnestock in the neck with the side of his glove.

Miss Margie Greenup spent Sunday with her teacher, Miss Ida Dillon.

Remember preaching at Mt. Olivet next Sunday. Everybody come.

Prof. and Mrs. W. I. Dillon visited Mr. Ed Fouts and family Monday evening.

A hen on the farm of W. I. Dillon, because she couldn't get some little chickens to raise, has adopted 5 little kittens and takes the best of care of them.

Elizabeth Chapel

Christian Church.

Sunday, April 24. Bible School 10:30 a. m. Preaching, 3:30 p. m.

W. M. MAYFIELD, Minister.

East Lone Oak.

Rev. Stille filled his appointment at Willow Branch last Sunday. His next regular appointment will be the first Sunday in May at eleven o'clock.

May Blankenbaker has the measles at this writing.

The patrons, of the Peru school, gave the teacher, Lovelle Boughan, a surprise dinner the last day of school. Quite a number were present, and an enjoyable time was had by all.

We notice our worthy editor has been the lucky man in the appointment of Supreme Court Clerk. Congratulations, Col. Allen.

We don't often mention the weather, for everybody knows how it has been any way before they read these items, but say wasn't it cold the first of the week. We think we will have to change our calendar after this and have March come after April instead of before it.

Miss Winnie Shepard gave the rural examination at Peru last Saturday. Some eleven pupils from the Willow Branch school took it. We have an idea that there won't be more than one or two schools in the county that will have more than that.

F. L. Blankenbaker threshed cane seed for Henry Evilsizer the first of the week.

Clela Ardath, daughter of George and Katie Daniel, of near Horace, Kansas, died April 14 of organic heart failure. The remains were shipped to this place for burial. She was a kind, affectionate little girl. The father, mother and little brother have the sincere sympathy of relatives and friends.

PUSSY WILLOW.

Along the Miami.

Versa Vermillion has been unable to attend school for several days.

Miss Maude Hoyt and Harry Hoyt have the whooping cough.

Mrs. H. J. Martin is on the sick list.

A. G. Hoyt attended the funeral of Emmett Young's baby, east of town, Thursday. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to Mr. Young and his family.

The pupils of Bethel school are preparing an interesting program for Friday. Their school closes that day.

Mrs. Nance has been ill for several days.

MIAMI.
